

Cash Prices Crowd the Store

Old Credit Patrons Continue and Many New Faces Are At the Counters

The cash system of doing business at the store of William Mill Williams has proved a success far beyond our expectations. Monday morning, bright and early, there was a crowd, a veritable throng of happy buyers at our counters. The new cash prices---THE SQUARE DEAL---was a pleasant revelation to them, and all bought liberally. The crowd has been increasing day by day as the good news spread from home to home. Our suggestion of ordering by phone and paying at your door was acceptable to hundreds, and our telephone bell keeps up a merry jingle all through the business hours. Our delivery wagons are now going to every part of the city. No matter where you live we want to serve you---and serve you promptly and satisfactorily. Remember our cash system makes you a saving of from 10 cents to 33 cents on every dollar expended at this store. Read the prices and then give us a trial order.

STAMP FAMINE PLAYED HAVOC

One postage stamp is not much. Neither are a hundred, says a story in the Tucson Citizen. They represent a value of but two dollars of four pesos in the land of manana in Sonora, but a half of a hundred would have brought ten times their weight in gold at the San Blas post-office if they could have been secured, and furthermore, they would have relieved much mental suffering and anxiety. Working for the Randolph lines in Sonora are a number of young men who come from different states in the Union the majority being from California. For almost a month these young men were cut off from communication with the outside world. Hearing daily stories of Yaquis being on the warpath, the relatives and friends of these young men became greatly alarmed. And it was not until now that the cause of the silence, or rather the loss of communication with the rest of the world, became known. It was given in a letter just sent out by one of the young men. "None of us has written home, for the simple reason that the San Blas postoffice has no stamps, and wouldn't let us send letters C. O. D. "I am writing now because the postmaster found three stamps yesterday and sold them to the fifty of us. We drew straws and I won one. That is why you are having the pleasure of hearing from me."

SURVIVED BY MANY CHILDREN. WATERLOO, Iowa, May 22.—Mrs. Elizabeth Kessel, aged 90, died Saturday, surrounded by four generations of descendants, all of whom have been living in the same home. The survivors number three children, twenty-three grandchildren, thirty great grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Mrs. Kessel was a pioneer Iowan.

Chicago Grain Market. CHICAGO, May 22.—The wheat market was erratic, prices ranging lower than yesterday's close. The greatest weakness was manifested late in the day. The market closed weak. July opened 1-8 to 1-4 lower at 90-3-8 to 90-1-2, advanced to 91-1-8, declined to 90-1-8, where it closed. Corn closed weak. May was at 77 1/2. July opened 1-8 to 3-8 higher, at 66 1/4 to 66 3/8, declined to 65 1/4 to 65 3/8, and closed at 65 3/8. The oats market was steady all day, the feature being the selling of September by the long. July opened unchanged at 46 7/8, sold between 46 3/4 and 46 7/8 to 47, and closed at 46 7/8. TO STREW FLOWERS ON LAKE

Beautiful Ceremony Will Be Observed on Memorial Day. BEMIDJI, Minn., May 22.—H. W. Bailey, commander of the R. H. Carr Post, stated that orders from Commander in Chief General Burton, relating to posts situated upon oceans, lakes, rivers and streams will, wherever possible, join with the auxiliary corps and allied organizations in the beautiful "memorial service to the sailor-soldier dead," will be observed here. The post and the circle will meet at the city dock and carry out this order by strewing flowers on the lake. Nearly every owner of a gasoline launch in the city has donated his launch for the use of the old soldiers and the ladies of the circle in observing this exercise. Commander Bailey and the members of the G. A. R. are spending $150 in beautifying the Grand Army block at Greenwood cemetery.

FIND CHINESE COOK GARROTED Body of Celestial Bound Securely in Japanese Boarding House.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Ng Wyeo Ming, a Chinese cook, who is known under the American name of Charley Daley Sandy, was found strangled to death this morning in a Japanese rooming house on Pine street. He had been garroted and bound hand and foot, while a rubber stamp bearing his assumed name rested in the socket of one of his eyes. There was a report that he was probably a victim of a highbinder avenger, but the police think robbery was the cause, as his pockets were turned inside out and the room had been thoroughly ransacked. Two white men were seen to leave the building shortly after midnight, and it is presumed they came from the room where the body was found.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. George Keys French have issued invitations for the marriage of Mrs. French's sister, Miss Laura Eunice Middleton Short, whose engagement to Mr. John William Cox was announced a short time ago. In honor of her engagement, Miss Short yesterday was tendered a rose shower by Mrs. Edmund T. Satchell at her beautiful home on Nob hill. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with hearts and roses. Each guest had brought with her a long-stemmed red rose, and these the hostess presented one by one to the charming bride-to-be, reading aloud as she did so, an accompanying quotation. An especially pretty feature of the decorations was a large bell of white roses under which the guest of honor stood to receive a shower of rice and dainty gifts. The afternoon was pleasantly spent. The prize, a copy of Harold McGrath's "The Best Man," was won by Miss Short, a happy omen of good luck. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Satchell's guests were Mesdames Nave, French, Kelly, Solomon, Rawlings, Smalley, Toombs, Barker, Sturgeon, Wales, F. L. Wales, Dayton, Wright, Hansen, Lantini, Smith, Brown; Misses Short, McCollum, Sparks, Montoya and Lowthian.

THIRD ARBITRATOR BACKS OUT. Labor of Board to Settle Cleveland Strike All Undone.

CLEVELAND, May 22.—After laboring all day and agreeing upon one important obstacle which stood between peace and war in the street railway strike situation, the work was all undone late tonight when Glen K. Shortliff declined to act as a third arbitrator. One arbitrator to represent the strikers and another to represent the Municipal Traction company had been easily selected Wednesday. Then came the task of deciding upon a third man. Today Shortliff was selected and tonight he declined. The task will be resumed tomorrow and in the meantime the strike goes on at least until tomorrow morning.
